

We Care About Others

When we care about others we show our love for God.

Work your way through the maze. Find good ways to act toward others.

