

Relationships

We have relationships with our family and friends.

We also have a relationship with Jesus.

Sometimes we bring these relationships together.

Unscramble the words to read the story.

Jeremy and his friends went together to pray in (hucchr) _____ church _____. They were going to participate in a prayer of (taridona) _____ adoration _____. This type of prayer gives (shatkn) _____ thanks _____ and praise to Christ in the (slebdse) _____ Blessed _____ Sacrament. Another name for Blessed Sacrament is (chusirtae) _____ Eucharist _____. Before entering the pew, everyone remembered to (feclugten) _____ genuflect _____, that is, to each bend on the right knee. This shows (sretcpe) _____ respect _____ for Jesus Christ. Jeremy watched the (speitr) _____ priest _____ hold up the Eucharist in a (tamcnosren) _____ monstrance _____. Jeremy prayed to Jesus for (cerga) _____ grace _____ to do God's will.

After sharing time together in church, the friends are going to play soccer.

Parents, Catechists, Teachers: Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is a special service in which we worship the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Prayers of adoration are said together and individually in our hearts. Scripture readings, prayer, and song are part of the celebration. Such focus on the Eucharist helps us deepen our relationship with Christ and one another.