

Respecting the Dignity of Others

We have dignity as children of God.

We respect the dignity of others when we treat them fairly.

For each of the spiritual works of mercy below, describe how to perform that work while treating the person or people involved with dignity.

Help others do what is right.
Teach the ignorant.
Give advice to the doubtful.
Comfort those who suffer.
Be patient with others.
Forgive injuries.
Pray for the living and the dead.

Parents and Catechists: Treating others with dignity and respect shows the strength of our moral character. Discuss the fact that it is something we hope to receive from others and thus should practice ourselves.
