

Being Moral

For Christians, morality comes from our relationship with Jesus.
The challenge to imitate Jesus arises frequently at home and in school.

The lists below include positive ways of responding to others. For each list, place + before the item you find easiest, and - before the one you find most difficult. Then, circle the number for each item by its importance to you. 1 = most important, 8 = least important.

At Home

- Speaking the truth
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Respecting the privacy of others
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Admitting wrongdoing
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Doing chores in a timely manner
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Sharing use of the computer, telephone, and TV
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Respecting older family members
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Respecting the space of others
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Asking before "borrowing" items from others
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

At School

- Showing respect for teachers and other staff members
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Doing your own homework and on time
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Returning library materials on time
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Not bullying others
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Reporting any bullying to a teacher or counselor
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Not cheating on tests
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Being kind and considerate to everyone
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

---

- Taking care of school property
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

* Focus on the item that seems most difficult in each list. How might you ask Jesus to help you?