

Fairness

Being fair helps everyone to be safe.

Color the stepping stones having words that describe fairness. They will take you to safety, away from danger. Stay away from the stepping stones with words people sometimes use to explain why they aren't being fair.

START
HERE

Parents and Catechists: When we are fair, we are respectful of the needs of others. Note how all the "saving" words reflect that. Discuss how we sometimes use "unsaving" words to justify our actions, e.g., we feel uneasy around a foreigner. Think about how Jesus welcomed foreigners. Continue with other examples.