

Virtues to Live By

Theological and moral virtues help us to live as Christians.
As we practice these virtues, or habits, they become easier to live by.

Down

- The MORAL virtues help us to avoid sin.
- The THEOLOGICAL virtues connect us with the Trinity.
- We practice JUSTICE by treating others fairly.
- Using PRUDENCE helps us to make good decisions.
- By FAITH we believe in God and God's revelations.
- We have HOPE when we look forward to everlasting happiness.

Across

- Good habits are called VIRTUES.
- We show FORTITUDE when we have the courage to do what is right.
- Through the love we show for God and others we practice CHARITY.
- By doing things in moderation we develop TEMPERANCE.

Parents and Catechists: Virtues are good habits that show our openness to the many opportunities we have to respond to the needs of others. Discuss special ways to live out individual theological and moral virtues.
