

Whose Gospel Was It?

Both Matthew and Luke give accounts of Jesus' birth. They tell the same story, but in different ways. Identify the Gospel verse(s) to match each description below. Use your Bible or go to usccb.org/nab. Then complete the sentences.

Description	Matthew	Luke
Angel appears to Mary Angel appears to Joseph
Mary's Magnificat
Zachariah's prophecy star
census registration
King Herod
manger and inn
Magi as first to worship Jesus shepherds as first to worship Jesus flight into Egypt

When does Matthew first use the term "Messiah"? _____ . What is it in reference to? _____ .

When does Luke first use the term "Messiah"? _____ . What is it in reference to? _____ .

Matthew's genealogy of Jesus (1:1-17) goes back to _____ .

Luke's genealogy (3:23-28) goes back to _____ .

